

Aug. 6, 1790

1912 Dates J-BK

HABSBURG, ROCS

After a battle of four hours, a large detachment of British and Tories were defeated by General BOUTCH at Hanging Rock on the CAT AND BATH river, and the British were

Nov 23, 1780

FORT ST. GEORGE

At Brookhaven, L.I. The British took possession of St. George's manor house, fortified it and named it Fort St. George. Major TALLMADGE, with a small force from Fairfield, Conn. was sent to destroy the frage which the British had collected there. The garrison at the Fort was taken by surprise (11/23/1780) and compelled to surrender 54 of their number, and about 20 tons of hay were burned.

Aug 1, 1780

1912 Dates J-BK

GREEN SPRING or CEDAR SPRING

A detachment of British Dragoons and riflemen under Captain Dunlop were sent to capture Colonel CLARK who was working for independence in South Carolina. The armies met at Green Spring near SPARTANBURG, and after a sharp engagement the British were defeated and driven back.

1780

1912 Dates J-BK

Mr. Britain
Lord George Gordon riots

Aug. 16, 1780

Sept. 1777

1912 Dates J-BK

(1721-1780) JOHN, Baron De Kalb

Officer in the American Revolution.
Commissioned as major general in Sept 1777.

He was mortally wounded
at the Battle of Camden
Aug 16, 1780

Nov. 12, 1780

1912 Dates J-BK

FISH DAM FORD

A small force of Americans under SUMTER, defeated the British led by WEAVER, at Fish Dam Ford, Broad River, S.C.

Nov. 20, 1780

1912 Dates J-BK

BLACKSTOCK'S Plantation

General SUMTER with a force of Americans met the British under Colonel Tarleton, at Blackstock's Plantation, Union District, S.C. and after a desperate struggle the British retreated with a loss of about 200 men.

1780
1751-1780

1912 Dates J-BK

JOHN ANDRE

English spy, hanged for connection with the Benedict Arnold Treason.
Captured by Montgomery at St John's (1775)
Exchanged (1776); Captain (1777)
Major (1778)

Sept 23, 1780. Captured near Tarrytown with incriminating writings of Arnold concealed in his boots. Tried by Court-Martial & hanged at TAPPAN,

New York (1780)

In Charleston, S.C., its garrison of 7,000 After 6 weeks' fighting surrendered to General Sherman with 16,000 men, one of the greatest disasters of the War.